

Bar Harbor Historical Society Collections Access and Use Policy

- The Bar Harbor Historical Society is a public trust dedicated to the increase and diffusion of knowledge. The BHHS is dedicated to providing equitable service to all researchers and inquirers, and access to its holdings to the fullest possible extent.
- Access to the BHHS collection is available by appointment only and subject to staff availability.
- All access requests will be submitted via email to info@BarHarborHistorical.org stating reason for the request and intended use.
- Requests to make or obtain copies of an un-digitized original item will be considered on a case-by case-basis.
- The BHHS permits and encourages personal and educational use of copies of collection documents, images, audio, and video and does not charge a fee for this use.
- Use of the BHHS's images, audio, and video materials for publication, commercial use, or distribution requires written permission. Requestors must fill out the BHHS's Rights and Reproduction Request Form. There is not a fee for incidental use however a donation may be requested for large or complex projects as determined by the BHHS.
- All copyright to material in the BHHS collection is held by the BHHS, and permission to reproduce the material, with the exception of fair use, must be obtained in writing from the BHHS.
- Users must give full and proper credit to the BHHS and use the following credit line:
 - From the Collection of the Bar Harbor Historical Society